

Denise Winters is back

Entrepreneur and restaurateur ... Denise Winters has returned to the Eastern Suburbs.

With her French influenced Cafe Parisienne which is situated at 94 Bronte Road, Bondi Junction, two blocks from Bondi Junction's Westfield. Open for lunch and dinner.

Denise has been in Sydney CBD over the last decade, but the Eastern Suburbs is where she loves.

I'm sure you all remember "The Regent" in Bay St, Double Bay, Edgecliff and Bathurst St, Sydney in the 80's and 90's where Denise provided luxury dining at reasonable prices.

Her new venture is just as good and Denise is cooking fresh local produce with French flair, with entrees at $12 and main courses at $25 it's good value. A variety of french wines are available at reasonable prices too.

Cafe Parisienne has a crisp white decor, sparkling glassware and the boutique dining room is reminiscent of the French Riviera.

You can also do what many have done before and hold a private function for up to 40 people. You have the whole place exclusively to yourself and can enjoy a wonderful French themed event to celebrate a birthday, anniversary, or bride to be occasion.

Come and join Denise for a wonderful time. The menu is delicious with sublime sauces all cooked to order and designed to have you "licking your lips" and the plate if no one's looking.

Welcome, we look forward to seeing you soon to enjoy a little touch of Paris in Sydney!
